≈PREFAGE.>

In presenting to our patrons The Elite Directory and Club List of Chicago for 1888-9, we invite attention to several features never before included in works of similar character, which will greatly enhance its value as a book of reference. The directory contains about 15,000 addresses of Chicago's most prominent citizens, arranged in two complete lists, the one in numerical order by streets, so that one can ascertain at a glance the occupant of any particular residence; and the other in alphabetical order, serving the purpose of an ordinary city directory without its bulky inconvenience. It also contains the complete membership roll and list of officers of all the clubs of prominence in the city. This is an entirely original feature, and of great interest to society people.

The addresses, having been carefully selected and verified, are as free from errors as is possible in a city the size of Chicago, where changes of location are so frequent, even among the better classes.

The book also contains a large amount of valuable information, including the location of parks, churches, societies, educational and charitable institutions, etc., with the addresses and office hours of leading physicians, dentists, artists and other professional people of the city, as well as the cards of many of our foremost tradespeople.

It has been our aim to make The Elite Directory and Club List invaluable to those in whose interest it is published, excluding from its contents everything tending to increase its bulk without enhancing its value, and our thanks are due and are herewith sincerely tendered the many friends who have kindly aided us in procuring information otherwise unattainable.

Arms and Crests.

White or a very delicate tint note paper and envelopes indicate refined taste.

Unmarried ladies have not the right to use the family crest.

Those who use arms or crests should have them printed as simply as possible.

Married ladies use the arms of their husband's family.

In a republic monograms are considered in better taste than crests or coats of arms.

Cetters and Notes.

The size and shape of note paper and envelopes may change, but the quality must be the best. Envelopes should always conceal the writing.

The custom of writing notes in the third person should be confined strictly to notes of invitation.

Notes should be commenced about the third of the distance from the top of the sheet.

The custom of leaving a blank margin on the left hand side of each page is now obsolete.

It is a thing of the past to commence letters with "Sir" or "Madam" when writing to persons in your own class or circle.

It is not admissible for a married lady to sign herself "Mrs." or a single lady "Miss."

In writing to strangers give the address in full after signing your letter, or if unmarried, the "Miss" should be placed in brackets preceding the signature.

Never write of your children as "Miss Julia" or "Master James." Reserve the "Miss" or "Master" for use in speaking or writing to inferiors.

Only the letters of unmarried ladies and widows are addressed with their baptismal names. All letters of married women should bear their husband's names, as "Mrs. Alfred Parker."

The French do not use "cher" or "chère" in commencing letters unless where there is great intimacy, but only "Monsieur," "Madame" or "Mademoiselle."

It is not permissible to use one's titles in signing notes or letters to friends.

In writing to inferiors use as few words as possible.

Letters of introduction should be brief and carefully worded.

Acceptances and Regrets.

Notes of Invitation for evening parties are issued in the name of the lady of the house.

It is civil to send an immediate acceptance to an invitation, or regrets if you must decline, and equally civil when an acceptance has been sent, to follow it with a note of regret before the entertainment, if at the last moment you are unable to go.

The expression "presents compliments" has been discarded.

The word "polite" is no longer used, but in its place the English form of "kind" or "very kind invitation."

No abreviation of names is allowed in invitations or in addresses, though initials may be used.

Invitations of a formal description can be sent out from ten days to two weeks before the party is to take place.

It is not considered good form to inclose one card of invitation to several persons.

Never use the word "avail" or "preclude" in notes of acceptance or regret.

The least formal of formal invitations is when the lady sends or leaves her own visiting card with the invitation upon it. An invitation of this sort is not to be answered unless R. S. V. P. is on the card. If you do not go, you call or leave a card as soon after as is convenient.

A labored apology for non-appearance at an entertainment is not in good taste.

Dinner invitations are written or engraved in the name of the husband and wife.

In answering a dinner invitation use the words "for dinner," or "to dine," not "to dinner."

All answers are to be addressed to the lady who invites, not to Mr, and Mrs. Blank.

Dinner, opera and theater-party invitations are to be answered as soon as received.

All regrets from persons who are not able to accept invitations should contain a reason for regretting.

The initials R. S. V. P. are not used as much as formerly, it being considered unnecessary to remind a person of good breeding that an invitation requires an answer.

In accepting a dinner invitation, repeat the hour named in order that if any mistake has been made it may be corrected.

You can not invite people to your house until you have first called upon them in a formal manner, and they have returned the visit.

Palls and Pards.

Among people of the highest cultivation it is binding to show one's appreciation of a first invitation by a cordial acceptance if one desires to keep the acquaintance, and by allowing nothing that can be controlled to prevent one from going.

P. P. C. cards are no longer sent out when the absence from home is only for a short time.

The elder lady pays the first call, unless she takes the initiative by inviting the younger one to call upon her.

Cards should be left at a house within a week after the entertainment to which the person leaving the cards has been invited, whether she has been able to accept the invitation or not.

When a lady announces her day at home, it is not permissible to leave cards without going in on that day, or to make a formal call upon any other day.

Only calls of pure ceremony are made by handing in cards, nor can a call in person be returned by cards.

When the yearly call due to an elderly person is not made, no invitation from the year can be expected from her.

A gentleman, invited by a lady to call upon her, cannot, without showing great discourtesy, neglect to pay the call within a week.

When a lady receives weekly, a resident desirous of calling upon her cannot make a first call on the reception day unless asked to call on that day.

A call upon persons in mourning, and all cards of condolence, should be returned with mourning cards, when the family begin to make their appearance in public.

When admitted upon a call of condolence, care must be had not to allude to the event first

Until the cards of formal acquaintances have been returned by cards of the bereaved. it is not well to repeat the call.

Cards of congratulation must be left in person.

Calls in person must be made upon the newly married, and upon the parents who have invited you to the marriage.

When no wedding cards are sent you, nor the card of the bridegroom, you cannot call without being considered intrusive.

When a formal announcement is made of a betrothal, by friends and relatives on both sides, calls of congratulation follow.

A lady should never keep a visitor waiting without sending down to see if the delay will inconvenience the caller.

Servants should be instructed to return, in all instances, to announce to the one waiting that the lady will be down immediately.

If, on making a call, you are introduced into a room where you are unknown to those assembled, at once give your name and mention upon whom your call is made.

When an elderly married lady invites a younger married one to call upon her, the call must be made within a few days, and returned at once if both ladies desire the acquaintance.

Gentlemen, as well as ladies, when making calls, send in but one card, no matter how many members of the family they may wish to see.

A gentleman's card bears his direction on the right hand corner, unless the name of some club, when it is placed in the left hand corner.

A lady's reception day is engraved in the lower left hand corner.

P. P. C, are the only cards it is considered universally admissible to send by post.

Cards bearing the name of the husband and wife together are no longer used.

A first call ought to be returned within three or four days.

A lady who is not in her own house does not rise either on the arrival or the departure of ladies, unless there is great difference in age.

When two ladies are introduced, it is the younger who is presented to the elder.

Dinners.

Invitations to dinner should be answered as soon as received; and if accepted, the engagement should on no account be lightly broken.

Age should take the precedence in proceeding from the drawing room to the dining room.

The host should offer his right arm to the oldest guest or the greatest stranger, or, if there be a bride present precedence is given to her. The lady whom he escorts should be seated at his right.

The hostess is escorted by the eldest gentleman or the greatest stranger, or some one whom she wishes to place in the seat of honor at her right.

Servants hand the dishes to the left of guests when passing the courses.

Women's Mutual Insurance and Accident Co.

128 BROADWAY, NEW YORK CITY.

The primary purposes of its promoters, briefly stated, were (1) to familiarize women with the subject of life and accident insurance, and (2) to open up to them an additional field of honorable labor. The question which used to be asked, "What reasons has a woman for insurance?" is very easily answered—She has the same reasons as a man has. "Ah, but," you say, "a woman is not a bread-winner—she does not earn money for the support of the house!" The reply is, that where she does not earn money, she earns money value. Take her away from the household, and see how much it will cost to supply her place!

WHAT MAY BE OBTAINED.

(1.) You may apply for an ACCIDENT certificate, entitling you to indemnity in case of accident, death, or total disablement.

(2.) Or for a LIFE certificate, entitling your beneficiary to a sum of money upon your decease, from natural or other causes

(3.) Or for a COMBINED LIFE and ACCIDENT certificate, entitling you to the combined benefits in case of accidental disablement, and upon your decease.

ELIZABETH B. PHELPS, President.
MARGARET HOLCOMBE, 1st. V.-Pres. and Treas.
EMILY TAYLOR, Secretary.

CORNELIA KAMPING, Actuary.

The Inter Ocean

Is Published Every Day in the Year, and is the LEADING REPUBLICAN PAPER OF THE NORTHWEST.

PRICE, EXCLUSIVE OF SUNDAY, BY MAIL, POSTPAID, - $8.00 PER YEAR.

PRICE, SUNDAY INCLUDED, BY MAIL, POSTPAID, - 10.00 ""

THE SEMI-WEEKLY INTER OCEAN

Is published on MONDAYS and THURSDAYS, and, besides the news condensed from the Daily, it contains many special features of great value to those so situated that they cannot secure the Daily every day. The Monday issue contains the sermons printed in The Daily Inter Ocean of the same date.

THE WEEKLY INTER OCEAN

Is the Most Popular Family Newspaper published west of the Alleghany Mountains. It was its popularity to the fact that it is the BEST EDITED and has the HIGHEST LITERARY CHARACTER of any Western publication. It is CLEAN and BRIGHT, and is the able exponent of IDEAS and PRINCIPILES dear to the American people. While it is broad in its philanthropy, it is FOR AMERICA AGAINST THE WORLD, and broadly claims that the best service that can be done FOR MANKIND IS TO INCREASE AND MAKE PERMANENT THE PROSPERITY OF OUR GREAT REPUBLIC. Conscientious service in this patriotic line of duty has given it an unusual hold upon the American people. Besides, no paper excels it as a disseminator of news.

The MARKET REPORTS are Reliable and Complete. The News of the World is found condensed in its columns, and the very best Stories and Literary Productions that money can purchase are regularly found in its columns.

Among the special Family Features are the departments,—THE FARM AND HOME, WOMAN'S KINGDOM and OUR CURIOSITY SHOP. On the whole, it is a Model American Newspaper, and richly deserves what it has,—THE LARGEST CIRCULATION of any publication of the kind in America.

The Price of The Weekly is - - $1.00 per year.

The Price of The Semi-Weekly is - 2.00 "

Remittances may be made at our risk, either by draft, express, post-office order, express orders, or registered letter. Address

THE RICHELIEU

Is conceded by all who have seen it to be the most luxuriously appointed Hotel in this country—securing to its guests a feeling of home comfort never before realized, while an air of quiet elegance pervades the entire house.

THE NEW BANQUET ROOM

will accommodate nearly two hundred persons comfortably, and may be engaged for Banquets, Society meetings, Dramatic entertainments or Social gatherings, either afternoons or evenings. The Hotel contains a number of smaller banquet rooms suitable for parties from six to thirty persons, in which the service of cut glass and china is both rare and costly.

Its location, Michigan Boulevard, between Jackson and Van Buren Streets, renders it convenient for Theater parties—the main Restaurant and Cafe remaining open until 12:30. This magnificent Hotel is under the personal management of Mr. H. V. Bemis, the projector and Builder, and Mr. A. S. Gage.

MRS. EX-PRESIDENT GRANT: "The piano purchased from you five years ago still gives the greatest satisfaction, and having been performed upon by some of the first musicians of Washington, their opinion is qualified approbation for the Bradbury."

MRS. EX-PRESIDENT HAYES: "It is a remarkably fine instrument in quality of tone, finish and touch, and everything that goes to make a truly first-class piano, and gives entire satisfaction in every respect."

DR. T. DEWITT TALMAGE: "It is the pet of our household—should have no faith in the sense or religion of anyone who does not like the Bradbury."

MAJOR-GENERAL O. O. HOWARD: "Mrs. Howard and myself cannot speak too highly of, or recommend too strengly, the beautiful Bradbury piano purchased from you—all that combines to make in every sense a first-class piano is combined in this."

ADMIRAL D. D. PORTER; "The Bradbury piano I purchased from you eight years ago has been used almost constantly, and has been tested by the best musicians, and pronounced one of the best they ever saw, in finished workmanship and fine quality of tone."

SOLID VESTIBULED TRAINS

Run over the Michigan Central, "the Niagara Falls Route," between Chicago and Buffalo. These trains are not only equipped with the finest Wagner Palace Sleeping-cars, but are made thoroughly complete by having vestibuled dining, smoking, first-class and baggage cars, and although constituting the famous "limited" of the Michigan Central, carry all classes of passengers without extra charge. These trains carry through vestibuled sleeping-cars between Chicago and New York, via NEW YORK CENTRAL & HUDSON RIVER RAILROAD, and between Chicago and Boston, via N. Y. CENTRAL and BOSTON & ALBANY RAILROADS. The east-bound "limited" also carries a through sleeper, Chicago to Toronto (via Canadian Pacific), where connection is made with parlor-car for Montreal. Accommodations secured at the Michigan Central ticket offices, No. 67 CLARK STREET, corner Randolph, and depot, foot of Lake Street, Chicago.

Being the highest prizes for their Standard

FLAVORING EXTRACTS.

HOUSEKEEPERS who study their interests will demand BURNETT'S FLAVORING EXTRACTS, and will find them the most economical as well as the most delicious of flavors. The SUPERIORITY of these Extracts consists in their PERFECT PURITY AND GREAT STRENGTH. They are warranted free from the poisonous oils and acids which enter into the composition of many of the factitious fruit flavors now in the market. They are not only true to their names, but are prepared from fruit of the best quality, and are so highly concentrated that a comparatively small quantity only need be used.
